APPLICATION FOR USE OF THE HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL ARCHIVES

I, _____, hereby apply to the Archives of the Harvard Business School for access to:

The purpose of my research and intended product(s)—books, articles, speeches, teaching materials, etc.—are described in the letter accompanying this application.

If I am granted permission to consult specific materials, I agree not to use any information that may be considered confidential without first receiving express permission from the Director of Baker Library Historical Collections.

I acknowledge that any photocopies I may request of materials in Baker Library Historical Collections are provided only at the discretion of the Baker Library Historical Collections staff and shall remain the property of Baker Library Historical Collections. I will not duplicate or transfer the photocopies and will return them to Baker Library Historical Collections when the immediate research is satisfied.

I further agree to apply separately for permission to publish or otherwise disseminate any information derived from Baker Library Historical Collections, including quotations, paraphrases and quantitative data.
