

ID: each ID consists of a geographical designation, followed by the year of publication; and if there is more than one item under a year, the year is followed by a period and number. Example: US1808.3.

Publication Title: refers to the title of the publication itself.

Way to Wealth Title: refers to title used to represent Franklin's The Way to Wealth.

Place: the city and country of publication expressed in English translation.

Year: the year of the work's publication.

Imprint: the publication information exactly as expressed in the edition.

Author/Editor: this refers to the editor or author of the publication where The Way to Wealth appears.

Publisher/Printer: the printer and publisher are often included in the imprint information.

Translator: the translator of the edition.

Genre: the genre or format or nature of the publication.

Language: the language of the publication.

Pagination/Collation: number of pages in the volume.

Location: the library or archive where the edition was consulted.

Contributor: authors (often well-known) who may have written introductions, brief commentaries or other materials.

Notes: The bibliographer's notes on the edition.